THE FARMHOUSE

at The Chester House Estate

The Northampton Hope Centre has been giving Hope to those who need it for over 50 years.

Their work supports people struggling with homelessness and issues relating to hardship, including addiction, mental health and wellbeing. As well as giving practical support, their holistic approach focuses on helping people to help themselves. They also work within the local community with projects aimed at early intervention.

We are supporting their Virtual Soup campaign - by buying a virtual soup you will directly support the Northampton Hope Centre to help people in your local community facing homelessness or hardship.
