

Roman Leicester

This website provides a comprehensive overview of Roman Leicester, also known as Ratae Corieltavorum, the tribal capital of the Corieltavi people in Roman Britain.

<https://romanleicester.com/>

Portable Antiquities Scheme

A database of images and information about finds found in and across Northamptonshire.

<https://finds.org.uk/counties/northamptonshire/artefacts-and-coins/>

Council for British Archaeology

An educational charity working throughout the UK to help people, experience and participate in archaeology. They have a compendium of resources looking at archaeology from across Britain.

<https://www.archaeologyuk.org/news-and-resources/resources.html>

The Festival of Archaeology resources can be filtered by region for specific resources

<https://www.archaeologyuk.org/festival/festival-resources.html>

Career path guidance is provided at the

<https://www.archaeologyuk.org/ways-into-archaeology.html>

Roman Inscriptions of Britain

This website aims to make every published inscription from Roman Britain accessible to all and provides searchable hosts translations of Roman inscriptions.

<https://romaninscriptionsofbritain.org/>

YAC

A UK-wide club where 8–16 year olds can participate in real archaeology and discover why it matters. They offer a selection of stand alone - craft-based activities based on archaeological periods and technology

<https://www.yac-uk.org/things-to-do>

Dig School

Founded during the pandemic, Dig School is made up of a series of 21 completely free, enquiry-based learning-enrichment workshops themed around different aspects of archaeology, created by the Council for British Archaeology and Professor Carenza Lewis, of the University of Lincoln and TV's Time Team.

https://digschool.org.uk/?page\_id=253